

Verger Sud

still cider

Established on the southern slopes of Pinnacle Mountain, our orchard is perfectly located to benefit from optimal apple growing conditions that translate into creating our Verger Sud still cider. Enhanced by a touch of our own renowned ice cider, Verger Sud offers the perfect balance of crisp and refreshing flavours. Recognized for the taste and quality of our ice ciders on all five continents, Domaine Pinnacle is proud to present this still cider, which derives its character and taste from the same orchard and philosophy of quality as that of our ice ciders.

TASTING NOTES

Appearance Bright, clear, light gold

Aroma Crisp, fresh apples and apple blossoms with hints of honey, citrus (grapefruit and pomelo)

Palate Fresh, fruited and crisp along with a dash of residual sugar helping to soften the refreshing acidity of the apples

Serving Suggestions An original alternative to white wine! Serve chilled (8°C). Ideal for picnics, summer afternoons and can be served with fresh cheeses and chicken terrine.
